

Destroying the World to Save It : Aum Shinrikyo, Apocalyptic Violence, and the New Global Terrorism

CURRENT EVENTS

National Book Award winner Robert Jay Lifton reveals a world at risk from millennial cults intent on ending it all.

Since earliest history, prophets and gurus have foretold the world's end, but only the nuclear age has made it possible for a megalomaniac guru with an apocalyptic vision to bring his prophecy to pass. Robert Jay Lifton offers a case in point in this chilling exploration of Aum Shinrikyō, the cult that released sarin nerve gas in the Tokyo subways.

With unprecedented access to former Aum members, Lifton has produced a path-breaking study of the inner life of a millennial cult. He shows how Aum's guru created a religion from a global stew of new age thinking, ancient rituals, and science fiction, then recruited scientists to produce weapons of mass destruction. Also taking stock of Charles Manson, Heaven's Gate, and the Oklahoma City bombers, Lifton confronts the frightening possibility of a twenty-first century in which cults and terrorists are able to bring about their own holocausts.

"A mesmerizing story told with consummate skill. Robert Jay Lifton's stunning analysis provides a cautionary tale for our times—nothing less than a window on the fragile and imperiled world we face in the twenty-first century."
—John Dower, author of Embracing Defeat, winner of the Pulitzer Prize

"Fascinating . . . A valuable aid to understanding the old problem of fanaticism in a new, particularly sinister form."—Daniel Berger, The Philadelphia Inquirer

"Robert Jay Lifton sounds a chilling alarm about an invisible new Grendel stalking the human race."—Charles Burress, San Francisco Chronicle

"An unflinching confrontation, infused with hope."
—Kenzaburō Ōe, winner of the 1994 Nobel Prize for Literature
